

Classic Slingshot Standard

- 1, The uniqueness of classic slingshot material: wood. It can be a natural tree fork, or it can be made from other wood.
- 2, the classic slingshot shape requirements: the maximum inclination Angle should not exceed 10 degrees. Both the slingshot arm and the handle shall be cylindrical. The tops of the two arms of the slingshot shall be parallel and not inclined. The handle of the slingshot may be engraved with the manufacturer's LOGO, and may also be treated with anti-slip winding or pattern bump.
- 3, the classic slingshot length requirements: not more than 30cm; Width requirement: no more than 25cm.
- 4, the classic slingshot can not use any sight, the slingshot arm can not have a bump mark or grading scale.
- 5, the type of classic slingshot rubber band: can use any shape of rubber band, such as: tubular, strip, square and so on.
6. The fixation of classic slingshot rubber band: it should be directly tied to the slingshot arm, and the rubber band can only be fixed by hand. The binding material can be thread, rubber band or tape.

Non-compliant case: Secured using clips and screws, constructed from durable metal, and featuring an integrated sighting system, a built-in laser module, and an ergonomically optimized flexible design.

Compliant case: Wooden material, Y-shaped structure. The handle and arm of the slingshot are both cylindrical, vertical and not bent, and are hand-tied.

WSA Competition Committee
January, 2021